WELCOME TO KAHULUI, MAUI

Today, the beautiful Pride of Aloha docks in Kahului, Maui. Maui is formed by two giant shield volcanoes which gives rise to its nickname, "The Valley Isle". Haleakala, the 10,023-foot tall volcano, whose name translates "House of the Sun", is the largest dormant volcano in the world. Not yet extinct, the volcano is predicted to erupt sometime in the next 200 years. Its last eruption was in 1790.

WHAT TO DO TODAY!

Don't miss the opportunity to savor this island, because there is so much to see and do. Bike down the hills of a dormant volcano on "Maui Downhill," paddle a kayak, or take the windy "Road to Hana." If you like hiking, take a trip out to the Garden of Eden on the "Rainforest & Waterfall Hike." The possibilities are endless. Some of the other great sights to see: "Maui Ocean Center," & "Maui Tropical Plantation." Discover the under water world on the "Atlantis Submarine" and after you've finished your tour, don't miss a visit to Lahaina. Take the "Lahaina on Your Own" bus! You can purchase a ticket from the Shore Excursion Desk. Lahaina, an old whaler's village, offers lots of great shops, boutiques and restaurants. To complete your day and your visit to Hawaii, the NCL Exclusive "Pacific Paradise Luau." If you still haven't booked, be sure to stop by the Shore Excursion Desk, located in the Aloha Atrium.
