GET READY FOR HONOLULU, HAWAII

You will want to enjoy all that this beautiful island has to offer. Oahu is known for its attractions such as Sunset Beach and the North Shore, famous Waikiki Beach, Pearl Harbor and Hawaii's Capital City of Honolulu.

Oahu is a rich mix of all different cultures such as Japanese, Chinese, Vietnamese, Samoans, Tongans, Tahitians, Hawaiians as well as other Pacific Islanders. Oahu is a melting pot of ethnic groups owing mostly to the immigrants coming to the island to work on the Plantation.

When you think of Hawaii, you probably think of stretches of white sand beaches and crystal clear blue water. Probably the most well known beach in the world is Waikiki Beach. It attracts nearly five million tourists each year. Perhaps its unique beauty comes from the beautiful view of Diamond Head at the north end of the beach. A beach that the locals love is Kailua Beach. It's on the windward side of the island and is a popular picnic spot for the locals on the weekend. It's a 30 acre park with a broad, grassy area as well as a wide, sandy beach great for snorkeling, swimming, sailing as well as board- and wind-surfing. There are also countless beautiful beaches that line the famous North Shore such as Waimea Bay and Sunset Beach.

If shopping is your thing, you must experience the shopping of down-town Waikiki. From Prada, to Gucci, Tiffany's, Coach and many other well-known designers, you will love walking along this splendid boulevard taking in all the great shops!
